

John Mayl Whichelo

A frigate going from St Helen's to Spithead

Reference: 10980

Dimensions:

Height: 10.80 cm / 4¼ in Width: 13 cm / 5⅛ in

SOLD

Two, one signed and dated l.r.: Whichelo 1826 and signed, inscribed and dated verso:

A Frigate going from St Helens to Spithead.JJ. Whichelo 1826., pen and grey ink and grey wash on grey paper, the second with touches of white

One with cut corners 10.8 x 13 cm, the other 9 x 2.9 cm

Accompanied by copies of the drawings by Augusta Raymond-Barker. Augusta Raymond-Barker's copies are very spirited renderings of the originals. Whichelo was marine and landscape painter to the Prince Regent by 1812.

KAREN TAYLOR

FINE ART

Provenance: Augusta Raymond-Barker, Fairford Park, Gloucestershire; thence by family descent until 2016