There are three drawings (on two sheets) for the eating room at Fairford in the Sir John Soane's Museum dating from 1789-90 (SM (5) 80/1/65 recto & verso (6) 81/2/99). They aim to remodel the room to make the wall panels more balanced, to use the same cornice as the main stair - case and to remodel the existing chimneypiece.
