

Paul Sandby, R.A.

River landscape with trees

Reference: 11200

Dimensions:

Height: 11.20 cm / 4³/₈ in

Width: 13 cm / 5¹/₈ in

Watercolour, with a pencil sketch of a house in a landscape verso, on laid paper

11.2 x 13 cm

Provenance: William Arnold Sandby; John Manning, London; Private collection, UK until 2017

William Arnold Sandby (c. 1828-1904) was the great-grandson of Thomas Sandby, author of the first book about the artists, Thomas and Paul Sandby-Royal Academicians, 1892, and the historian of the Royal Academy (two volumes of its history published in 1862). He had a large collection of the work of his forebears, helped organise their first exhibition at Nottingham Castle Museum in 1884 and bequeathed many of their works to museum collections.

KAREN TAYLOR

FINE ART